GRUNDTVIG LEARNING PARTNERSHIP

LET'S SAVE OUR CHILDREN

This is the first newsletter written by the Project partners to give you the latest news about LET'S SAVE OUR CHILDREN.

INTRODUCTION

The aim of this partnership is to sensitize the local communities towards the drugs' issue and suggest innovative and effective prevention methods and techniques. This will be achieved by preparing and organizing prevention programs, which will be more appealing to the students, young people and their parents.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This partnership is funded by the European Commission within the framework of Lifelong Learning GRUNDTVIG Learning Partnerships. The Action is coordinated by BELEN HALK EĞİTİMİ MERKEZİ from Turkey, and there are three more partner countries, namely Poland, the UK and Greece.

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission.

THE FIRST TRANSNATIONAL MEETING

The kick-off meeting took place in Iskenderun, Turkey, from 8th to 12th January 2013. Two colleagues from the UK, four colleagues from Poland and four students and two teachers from Greece travelled to Turkey. During the meeting, the four partners presented their institutions as well as the legislation concerning drugs in their countries, they discussed and agreed on a common work plan and they set the rules for monitoring and evaluating the project. Finally, each partner presented the logo they had designed and the best one was selected to be used in all formal documents.
